Colo Zhao

An illustration of a young boy and girl sitting on the ground by a small campfire. The boy is on the right, wearing a blue jacket, and is touching the girl's face. The girl is on the left, wearing a brown and blue dress, and has her hands clasped near her face. They are in a village with traditional Chinese-style buildings and a large full moon in the background. The scene is lit with a cool blue tone, with some red lanterns visible in the windows of the buildings.
